VICE PRESIDENT AND MANAGER OF CALIFORNIA BANK & TRUST IN HAYWARD HONORED FOR OUTSTANDING COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Chabot College Foundation and the Hayward community to honor Richard Hong with Fall Gladiator Award

HAYWARD, Calif. (September 3, 2008) – California Bank & Trust

(www.calbanktrust.com) announced that Richard Hong, the bank's vice president and manager of the Hayward-based branch has been honored by the Chabot College Foundation for his outstanding support of the college and the Hayward community. Each year, the college's executive board picks individuals who have made a dynamic impact on the community and the college and honors these individuals with a bronze Gladiator statue. Hong will receive his award at the Starlight Club 2008 event, "Chabot Goes to Monte Carlo" on November 1, 2008 at the Hayward City Hall Rotunda.

"I am honored to receive this award from Chabot College," said Hong. "I love the City of Hayward and the college is doing so many outstanding things to better our community and those that live in Hayward that I can't help but want to be part of it. Chabot College and the Chabot College Foundation are an integral part to making the local community a better place. I'm very proud to have California Bank and Trust with me in support."

Hong has been involved with the Chabot College Foundation for over five years in varying capacities including, Board Member, Chairperson, President, and is now on the Honorary Board.
