

California Bank & Trust Announces New Products and Services for the Dental Industry

SAN DIEGO, CA — California Bank & Trust (CB&T) (www.calbanktrust.com) is pleased to announce two new offers: a new equipment loan for professionals in the dental community and a new product and service package for dental practices. The new equipment loan is available as part of the new product and service package, but is also available on its own. The new package offers a range of solutions from Professional Credit Lines to supplement cash flow, to deposit accounts and online banking to merchant service card processing to provide patients with more payment options.

CB&T's new products and services were created specifically for small and medium sized dental practices and reflect California Bank & Trust's continued commitment to providing financial tools for small and medium sized businesses to grow and expand their businesses.

"California Bank & Trust's new loan, and product and service package are tailored to help dental businesses throughout California," said Steve Borg, the senior vice president and corporate marketing director at California Bank & Trust. "Given the competitive landscape in the dental industry, helping to give dentists the resources they need means delivering smart financial solutions to streamline their banking relationship, improve cash flow, and give these professionals access to competitive financing options. We will work with dentists to take the worry out of their finances so they can do what they do best, care for their patients."
