CB&T receives 14 Greenwich Excellence Awards for business banking

The Greenwich Excellence Awards are given to financial institutions based on surveys conducted with nearly 13,000 businesses across the U.S. with sales of $10 - $500 million. We are one of only a handful of financial institutions given these prestigious honors from a field of more than 750.

Winning these Greenwich Excellence Awards is an honor, especially given the fact that they are presented based on feedback from our business customers.

We are proud that our customers recognize our commitment to providing them with the financial products, services, and expertise they need to reach their business objectives.
