CALIFORNIA BANK & TRUST CONTINUES SUPPORT OF SAN DIEGO'S HISTORIC OLD GLOBE THEATRE

SAN DIEGO (July 20, 2009) — California Bank & Trust (CB&T), the largest bank headquartered in San Diego, is pleased to announce its support of the historic Old Globe Theatre for the twelfth straight year.

California Bank & Trust will be the title sponsor of the Old Globe's upcoming production of The First Wives Club – The Musical, which will run from July 15 through August 25. In promotion of the bank's support of this play, CB&T is offering a chance to win a "Weekend Getaway for Two" which includes a one night stay at the Westgate Hotel, dinner at the Prado, two tickets to The First Wives Club performance on August 22 and brunch at Le Fontainebleau on August 23. Anyone interested in entering the drawing can stop by any California Bank & Trust branch in San Diego County and fill out an entry form. The winner of the drawing will be contacted via phone no later than August 12th.

"We are very excited to be supporting such a wonderful establishment that brings so much to San Diego in terms of first-class entertainment and history," said Sandy Redman, SVP and manager of California Bank & Trust's San Diego Private Banking Group and executive board member of the Old Globe Theatre. "We are grateful that the bank supports local businesses and community events. This production will be a great one and we are thrilled that someone will have the chance to win the "Weekend Getaway for Two" to see The First Wives Club."
