CALIFORNIA BANK & TRUST RAISES $35,000 FOR CITY OF HOPE

SAN DIEGO--(June 22, 2010) – California Bank & Trust (CB&T) (www.calbanktrust.com) is pleased to announce that the bank has raised a total of $35,000 in support of the City of Hope, a leading research and treatment center for cancer, diabetes and other life-threatening diseases.

CB&T associates in the San Diego area spent several weeks employing a variety of fundraising methods, including bake sales root beer float sales, gift basket sales, drawings for paid days off, jeans days and a host of other fun and creative ways to generate donations towards City of Hope's Walk for Hope campaign. CB&T bankers completed their fundraising efforts by participating in the Walk for Hope where they were able to present the check to City of Hope of San Diego. This marked the 11th year that CB&T associates have raised funds for the City of Hope annual walk campaign.

"Everyone either knows someone or has had a family member who has been affected by cancer. Supporting City of Hope and its mission to help treat and find a cure for cancer and other life threatening diseases is a very worthy cause. I am always proud of our associate's involvement in community events and of the fundraising efforts by CB&T," said Tory Nixon, executive vice president and president of the San Diego division of California Bank & Trust. "This is a great example of the generosity of our people."
