California Bank & Trust adds 13 new branches

California Bank & Trust has completed the conversion of the former Vineyard Bank branches and accounts to the California Bank & Trust name.

San Diego-based California Bank & Trust, which is a affiliate of Zions Bancorp, acquired the deposits and loans of Vineyard Bank from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in July.

The takeover gave California Bank & Trust 13 additional branches in California, many of them in the Inland Empire. A couple were also in the Bay Area. The bank now has 113 branches statewide.
