IF YOU'RE NOT SCARED YET, MAYBE YOU SHOULD BE.

According to the Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3), a combined effort of the FBI and the National White Collar Crime Center, reports of cyber crimes increased over 33% last year alone.

However, you can protect yourself. In addition to downloading our free Trusteer Rapport security software, consider implementing these vital online safety tips:

-  Never open file attachments or click on web links if you're unsure of the source
-  Never respond to an online request for account information or access credentials
-  Reconcile all bank transactions, including checking online for electronic transfers — on a daily basis
-  Ensure antivirus, spyware detection and other security software are installed and updated regularly
