June 10, 2016

Community financing organizations will gather at the California Bank and Trust Training Room on Tuesday, June 21 from 9 to 10:30 a.m. to discuss lending options for small business owners.

Sponsored by California Bank & Trust and Accion, this event features a panel-style discussion on what to look for when choosing a lender.

"There are so many options that business owners are faced with when looking for financing," said Accion's Chief Officer of Strategy and Business Development Valery Belloso. "It's important for potential borrowers to be well-versed on the different products that lenders have to offer as well as what lender is best for their new or growing business."

The panel will be moderated by California Bank & Trust's Vice President of Community Reinvestment Lisa Brooks and will include a question-and-answer portion. Participating organizations include Accion, California Bank & Trust, CDC Small Business Finance and the Small Business Administration. Lenders will also be available after the event to speak one-on-one and answer any questions related to product offerings.

The event will include a networking session and a light breakfast. There is ample parking at the location, located at 9590 Foothill Boulevard in Rancho Cucamonga.

The event is free to the public. Register at <http://financingforbizsuccess.eventbrite.com> or by calling (691) 795-7250.
